

It is a fact of life that the views and beliefs of Ownership trickle down into programing in suble ways. If money and power, instead of diversity and balance, determine media ownership, we will all suffer from a lack of real options no matter how many apparent options there are. Please protect competition and diversity in media ownership.